Across
8. a dangerous or serious situation, such as an accident (n)
9. to remember a special day (v)
10. the bones in the head (n)
11. a holiday in the U.S. and Canada when families are thankful for food health etc. (n)

Down
1. to become a particular age (usually 18 or 21), when you become an adult (exp) [3 words]
2. food remaining at the end of a meal, and kept to eat later (n)
3. clothes that you wear to look like someone else (n)
4. a holiday on October 31, when children wear costumes (n)
5. a path for people to walk on along the side of a road (n)
6. the bones supporting a human or animal body (n)
7. the soft round part of your face below your eyes (n)