Across
5. Decide not to get angry about something (v)
7. Secret word for an account (n)
10. To understand the value of something (v)
11. A lock with numbers (n) 11,4
12. Opposite to pass, as in tests (v)
13. A small tool or machine that makes a job easy (n)
14. To get better (v)
15. An arranged meeting (n)
16. The part of your brain that remembers (n)
17. You need to be this to accept problems without complaining (adj)

Down
1. Mark words with a brightly colored pen (v)
2. To make someone admire you very much (v)
3. To tell someone how great you think they are (v)
4. To divide something into parts (v) 5,4
6. Happy and positive (adj)
8. To not be able to make someone happy (v)
9. Stop thinking about something or someone (v) 6,5